INDIAN PREMIER LEAGUE

The Indian Premier League is a professional Twenty20 cricket league in India. There are 10 franchises in the league representing different cities/state in India. IPL features many international and domestic players and usually happens between march and may every year.

History: Indian Premier League is a professional Twenty20 cricket league in India, organised by the Board of Control for Cricket in India. Founded in 2007, it features ten city-based franchise teams.

Format: The Indian Premier League (IPL) follows a unique tournament structure designed to manage a ten city-based franchise teams.The Indian Premier League employs a league stage followed by a playoff system to determine the champion among its ten franchises. In the league stage, each team contests 14 matches, totaling 70 fixtures, with matchups structured to include home-and-away games eams earn two points for a victory and zero for a defeat, with net run rate (NRR).

Players: The IPL attracts top cricketing talents, The Indian Premier League employs player auctions as its primary recruitment mechanism, functioning as a competitive bidding market. Unsold players at the auction can become replacement signings for injured or unavailable players.

Awards: The Fair Play Award is given to the team considered to have the best fair play record in the season. The Orange Cap is awarded to the highest run-scorer at the end of each season. The Purple Cap is awarded to the highest wicket-taker at the end of each season. The Most Valuable Player award, formerly called the "Man of the Tournament" is awarded to best player of the season. The Emerging Player Award was presented to the best young player of the season in terms decided by BCCI
